RUSSIA IS WILLING TO MAKE AMENDS

THE DANGER POINT OF THE RUSSIAN BALTIC FLEET INCIDENT HAS BEEN PASSED.

IT IS CLAIMED RUSSIA WILL MAKE GOOD ALL DAMAGES INCURRED.

KING EDWARD'S VISIT TO NEW MARKET IS TAKEN AS A GOOD OMEN.

(By Publishers' Press.)

LONDON, Oct. 25.—It is stated this morning that the situation growing out of the shelling of British fishing vessels in the North Sea by the Russian Baltic fleet has already been adjusted in principle.

Russia has agreed to make every amend within reason. She desires, however, to hear fully the report. The main danger at present lies in the possibility of the St. Petersburg authorities falling fully to realize the red heat of English opinion and as a result resorting to dilatory and evasive tactics in adjusting details. The remainder of the fishing fleet has been fully accounted for. Many, however, in their haste to get beyond the range of the Russian guns, cut away their nets and other valuable gear, all of which Russia will be expected to make good.

Premier Balfour arrived in London early this morning. As soon as his train reached the station he hurried to his office where he answered a mass of telegrams which had collected there. He then conferred with Foreign Secretary Lansdowne and a little later drove to Buckingham where he had an audience with King Edward. After the visit the King left for New Market. This latter fact is taken to indicate that the crisis has passed the acute stage, inasmuch as the King would undoubtedly have remained in London.

England's Demands.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—It is now understood that England's note to Russia relative to the firing on British fishing vessels contained three demands, namely:

First—An apology by the Russian government.

Second—Adequate compensation for damage inflicted.

Third—An immediate inquiry by the St. Petersburg authorities to ascertain who the guilty officers are and to impose punishment on them.

WILL TUNNEL UNDER HUDSON

DELAWARE, LACKAWANNA AND WESTERN RAILROAD WILL BURROW UNDER THE FAIRMONT RIVER.

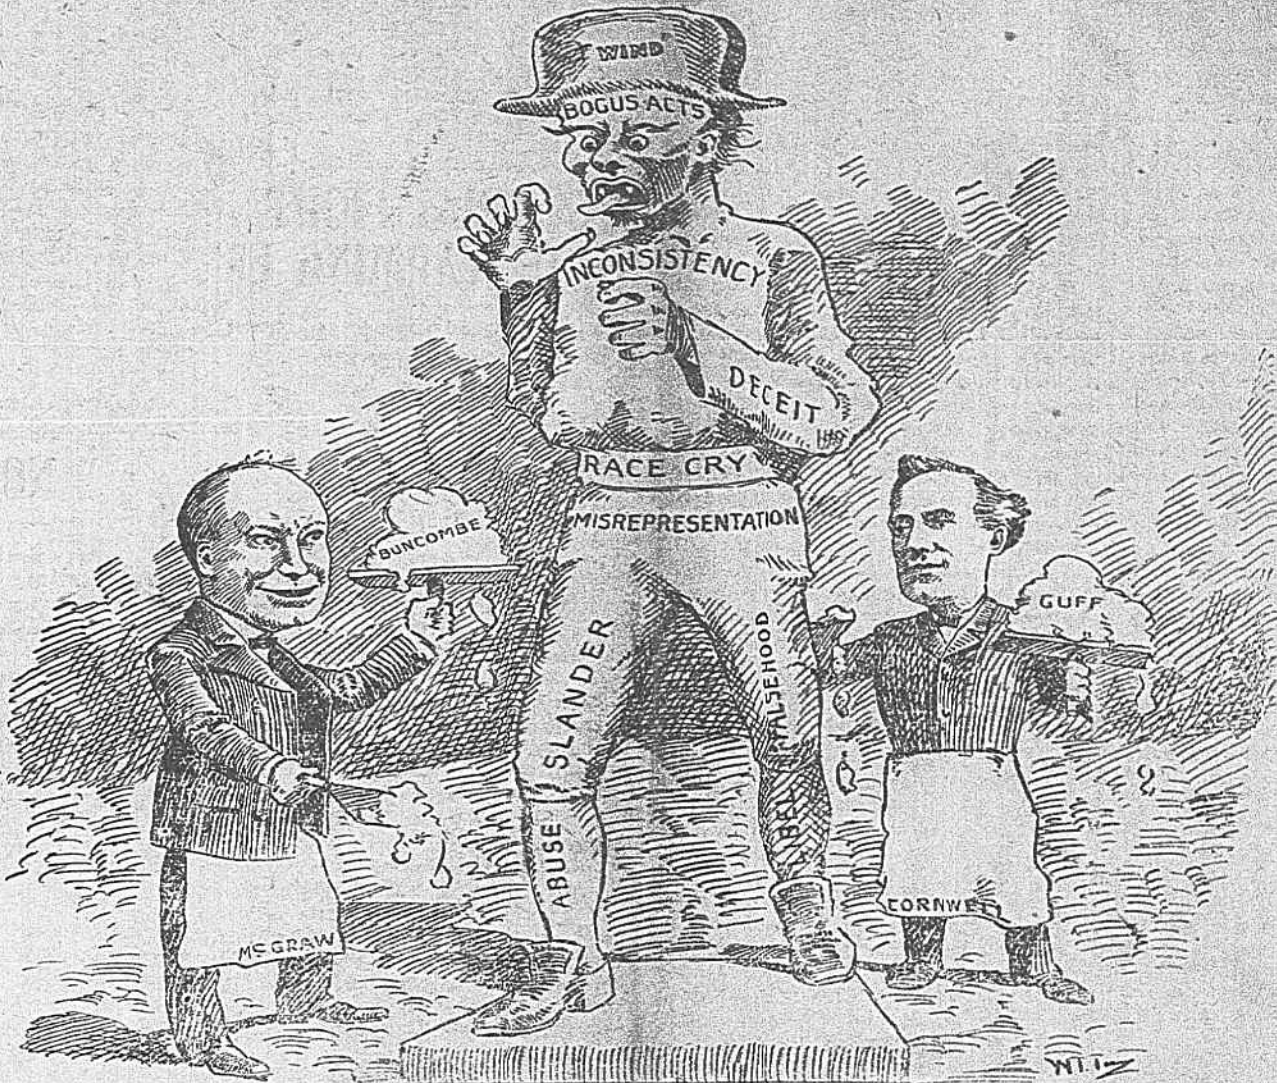

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad is preparing to build a tunnel under the Hudson river into this city. The news came out yesterday when the Lackawanna Tunnel railroad company with a capital of $300,000 was incorporated at Albany. The charter states that the company intends to "construct and operate a railroad from a point in the borough of Manhattan south of twenty-third, through one or more tunnels under the waters of the Hudson river to Hoboken, N. J."

Walter W. Ross, counsel for the Company, said this morning that nothing definite in the way of plans had been decided upon. He said that the present intention was that the tunnel would be mainly for passengers. Mr. Ross said he did not think the tunnel would connect with the Pennsylvania and New York Central terminals.

"Girls Will Be Girls."

One of the very best reasons that "Girls Will Be Girls" is all that is claimed for it is the fact that practically all of the Fairmont people who saw this production at Atlantic City have purchased tickets, and are heartily recommending it to their friends. The seats were placed on sale Monday, and the choice ones are going rapidly. Mr. C. E. Reed, who saw this attraction at Atlantic City, gives the management of the local theatre authority to quote him as saying that it is one of the best musical productions he has ever seen, and says that Fairmont theatre-goers have a rare treat in store if they avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing this attraction.

HONEST MEN INDIGNANT

OVER A SCURRILOUS LETTER SENT OUT ANONYMOUSLY AGAINST JUDGE SANDERS.

COUNTY OFFICIALS AND ATTORNEYS OF McDOWELL DENOUNCE IT IN STRONG TERMS.

We, the undersigned, court officers and attorneys, of McDowell county, West Virginia, belonging to both political parties, desire to express our condemnation and disapproval of a scurrilous, offensive and slanderous card, published anonymously, and circulated through this State, signed "A Republican," reflecting very seriously on the character and standing of Hon. Jos. M. Sanders, judge of this circuit.

We all know Judge Sanders personally and are well acquainted with his character, both as a public officer and as a man, and personally certify that these charges are absolutely false, slanderous to the utmost extent and unworthy of the consideration of any honest, decent voter. Judge Sanders has established among us a character that is equal to that of any man who has ever occupied the high position he has filled during the past eight years, and regardless of political affiliation he holds, and has merited, the confidence, respect and good will of every person having business relations with him of any character whatsoever.

Very respectfully,

W. W. Hughes, attorney at law, Republican; Botts Strother, attorney at law, Democrat; James French Strother, attorney at law, Republican; J. J. Divine, attorney at law, Republican; J. F. Beavers, ex-state senator, Democrat; W. O. Perry, Democrat; L. C. Anderson, attorney at law, Republican; W. Burbridge Payne, clerk of Circuit Court of McDowell county, Republican; R. B. Bernheim, Republican, clerk County Court of McDowell county; E. T. Sprinkle, Republican, sheriff of McDowell county; E. C. Bailey, Republican; Wyndham Stokes, Democrat, attorney at law; T. F. Henritze, Democrat; A. P. Gillespie, attorney at law, Republican; J. W. Chapman, attorney at law, Democrat; E. L. Long, attorney at law, Republican.

Roosevelt and Davis.

According to one of their leaders, local Democrats have given it up that Parker cannot be elected. This was given out on the street yesterday. "But," said the man, "we will elect Davis." What kind of government does the man think he is living under, anyhow?

AN ANCIENT CITY JUST DISCOVERED

A DWELLING PLACE WHICH HAS BEEN DESERTED FOR TWO THOUSAND YEARS.

(By Publishers' Press.)

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 24.—An ancient city, deserted for two thousand years, but once inhabited by Aztecs of much larger stature than those who lived in Central America is reported to have been discovered in the Andes mountains, two hundred and fifty miles from Arauco, Chile, by Professor Emil Von Burgess, the Berlin archaeologist and William J. Hemmings, of New York, who has spent years in exploring South America.

The deserted city was found in a small valley, reached after weeks of hardship. It was in an excellent state of preservation, the explorers finding stone houses built twenty centuries ago, crumbling and grown over with mosses and shrubs, yet standing upright. A large quantity of articles taken from the city are being taken east.

The city is thought to have had a population of 1,500 and Professor Von Burgess believes that either flood or disease exterminated the race.

SEVERAL GAMES

ARE BOOKED FOR THE LOCAL Y. M. C. A. FOOTBALL TEAM.

The management of the Y. M. C. A. football team announces several games booked for the near future. A great deal of talking has taken place and some had formed the belief that the team was a fake, but they will be shown that such is not the case. The team has been practicing all the time, and is in good shape.

The first game will be a friendly one played at the Fair Grounds with the High School A. C. team Wednesday, November 2. The second and third games will be played at Elkins Saturday and Monday, November 5 and 7, with Davis and Elkins College, and the Elkins All Star Y. M. C. A. teams. The fourth game will be played here at home, with the strong team from the Wesleyan University of Buckhannon. The latter team is an exceptionally strong one, and the locals will have a chance to show what they can do.

The Best of the Season.

Manager Spray Linn, of the High School A. C., announces the best game of the season for next Saturday. Their opponents will be the Elliott Commercial school, of Wheeling, one of the fastest organizations of the kind in the State. The team representing the High School is to be the best ever placed on the field by them and the sport-loving public is assured an excellent game.

WILL DIE OR KEEP THE SECRET

A MAN HAS THREE PARTNERS IN CRIME BUT ABSOLUTELY REFUSES TO GIVE NAMES.

(By Publishers' Press.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—One of the men implicated in the killing of Saloonkeeper William Kniering, Thirty-third street and Princeton avenue Sunday night, is under arrest, and has confessed his guilt. The prisoner is Malcolm Robert Taylor, 27 years old. He was arrested at his home last evening.

In the struggle with the saloonkeeper, Taylor was shot in the right leg. Officer Stark saw a doctor emerging from Taylor's home Monday afternoon and this led to the raid on the home of Taylor. In his signed confession Taylor takes all the blame for the murder of Kniering. He refused to give the police the names of his three confederates, and says he will die before he divulges their identity.

STATEMENT IS MADE THAT HIS RESIGNATION WILL BE IN WITHIN SIXTY DAYS.

Hayes, should George Gould succeed in inducing the latter to give up the position as vice president and general manager of the Grand Trunk. This statement is made here on the authority of an eastern railroad official closely allied with the Gould interests, who declares that the change will take place within the next sixty days.

GHASTLY FIND ON AN OHIO HILLSIDE

BODY OF A TRAVELING MAN WHO SUICIDED FOUND OPPOSITE SISTERSVILLE.

SISTERSVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 25.—Okey Roush, of this city, while hunting on the Ohio side of the river yesterday morning was horrified to find the badly decomposed body of a man lying face downward under a ledge of rock that fronts a run on the C. P. Russell farm opposite this city. He hastened to this city with the intelligence and the investigation that followed revealed to a certainty that the man was R. G. Holmes, a traveling salesman in the employ of P. J. Harney & Co., of Lynn, Mass. Near his side was found a 38-calibre Ives-Johnson revolver with two empty chambers, and a short distance down the hillside an empty two ounce bottle labeled carbolic acid and bearing the name of a local drug store. These two articles probably explain the means by which the suicide was committed, although the body was in such condition that a hasty examination given did not disclose any bullet wounds.

Holmes registered at the Hotel Wells in this city on September 29, and was assigned to room 51. He was a young man of good appearance under the medium height, with smooth face and well dressed. He showed the appearance of drink upon his arrival and continued his potations at the hotel bar until his condition became such that he was refused anything further in the way of intoxicants. During this time the little conversation that he indulged in was irrational and he seemed to be very much worried and perturbed in mind. On the morning following his arrival he settled his score at the hotel and had his stock baggage taken over to the station, where it still remains. A hand grip, containing articles of wear, was left in his room.

Governor Wright a Democrat.

It is well to emphasize the fact that Governor Wright, who so clearly points out the great harm which is wrought by the Democrats by their agitation of the question of Philippine independence, is himself a Democrat. The governor's good sense and patriotism have been so conspicuously displayed in the affairs of the Philippines that the great majority of people naturally imagine that he is a Republican.—New York Press.

BUSHELS OF FUN FOR THE NEIGHBORS

SOME INTERESTING FAMILY HISTORY AIDED IN JUSTICE AMOS' COURT.

TROUBLE STARTED WITH THE CHILDREN AND THE OLD FOLKS TOOK IT UP.

JUSTICE HAD SOME TROUBLE TO MAINTAIN HIS JUDICIAL DIGNITY.

Nearly all the people living along Spence street are suffering from soreness of the sides, the result of over-joyment. Friday evening, as mentioned in yesterday's West Virginian, Mrs. I. L. Mazza and Mrs. Nicolaus Delligatti had some trouble at their homes on the above mentioned thoroughfare. As a result Mrs. Delligatti was the defendant in a peace warrant which was heard before Justice Amos this morning.

From the evidence at the trial the people are to be pardoned for their side-splitting mirth. Had some large circus exhibited in the Second ward not a person would have attended from Spence street; they had a good enough circus right there at home.

It seems that the trouble started between the children of the two families, beginning with the two year olds. It ran by years until the old folks became mixed up in it. Bricks, clubs, old shoes and even baby rattlers were hurled through the air until sun, moon and stars were hid from view. When the smoke of the battle cleared away, French, Italian and broken English utterances were lying around on the ground ranging in size from a guinea egg to a beer keg. Officer Gould came along and quailed them (not the oaths but the women) and Saturday morning the warrant was sworn out by Mrs. Mazza.

At the trial this morning it developed that trouble has been existing between the two families for some months, and on the witness stand one of the men was accused of stealing chickens before he left Italy.

At several times during the trial it was hard for the justice to preserve the dignity of the court. The State was represented by Attorney C. H. Leeds, while Consul Mariana looked after the interests of the defendant.

A long list of witnesses, including the Delligattis, the Martinellis, the Mazzas, the Polindisks, the Pignettis and the Macaronis, was examined and before the testimony was finished the brick had changed to a beer bottle containing a few green flies. It seems that Mrs. Mazza is of French descent, while her husband and all the others concerned are Italians. Had the men folks been at home the trouble may never have happened, but they got there too late. The women called each other names which look and sound better in the omission than in the commission.

After reviewing all the evidence the justice as well as the court room loafers was of the opinion that both women should be bound over to keep the peace, but the warrant would not allow such action. The defendant was placed under bond of $100 to refrain from flourishing such dangerous articles as bottles in the air and threatening to lightly smooth back the golden curls from the foreheads of other women therewith.

MR. HUBBARD COMING.

The voters of Marion county have a great treat in store for them: On Thursday, November 3, at 1:30 P. M., the Honorable W. P. Hubbard, of Wheeling, president of the State Tax Commission, will discuss the new tax laws, and it is safe to say that no man in the State knows more about them than he. Remember the date and plan to be here. November 3 will be Farmers' Day, and thousands will be here to listen to the great expounder of the truth about the new laws.
